

Mrs. Crystal Renea Waters

March 3, 1985 - April 5, 2020

Crystal Renea Allen was born to Tina Towler and Donnie Allen on March 3, 1985 and reared by Anna and Greg Queen. She departed this life on Sunday, April 5, 2020 at UNC Hospitals, Chapel Hill, NC.

Crystal received her formal education in the Pike County school system. where she attended Belfry High School and later went back to school where she received her degree to become a dental assistant. She did this all while making time for Church, family and friends, shortly after she met Marcus in January 2016 through a church group, they soon got married July 5, 2016 forming a blended family. Before moving to North Carolina, they were both ordained ministers at their local church House Of Praise. Through the time they were together, they won five souls to the Lord and 2 being the youngest children. Crystal was big in her faith and she loved God and loved learning about God. Crystal lived her last days praising and worshiping him. Through it all they never lost their faith.

Crystal was a loving wife, Caring Mother, and amazing friend to all.

Crystal has made an impact to so many lives with her unconditional love, kind heart and support. Crystal was a full time Mother, wife, and friend. She loved to spend time with her family by going bowling, out to dinner or to the beach. She always managed to make time for family and friends while working. In Crystals free time she would love to read books, bake and spend time with her family.

Crystal is survived by her husband, Marcus; her two sons, Jackson and Tamerick; two daughters, Kiana and Layla; mother, Tina Towler; parents that reared her, Anna Queen (Greg); siblings, Tiffany, Donnie, Greg Jr., Leann; very devoted sister/friend, Tania Perez (Rico); God-son, Isaiah Perez; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
