“ Phyllis and Family,

I just learned of your mother's transition. Please be comforted knowing others are praying for and with you. How blessed you were to be able to take care of your mother and make so many memories together.

You will be able to feel again as the numbness wears away. God will sustain you as you begin living down here without your mother's presence. She is with you and the love you shared will be great source of strength in the days to come.

“ Family, May our condolences bring you comfort and may our prayers ease the pain of this loss. Only God can truly know what you are feeling in your heart now, and only He can restore your spirit. You all are in our prayers.

I thank the Lord for Momma Rob, oh what a blessing she has been to me. The natural man in me was sadden to hear this news; but the spirit man in me quickly rejoiced. Momma was no doubt a child of the most high God and filled with love and joy. Anyone who's had the pleasure would agree that she is special. She is home now; in that room in the mansion. I can see that smile on her face as she rests in the Lord. Hallelujah! Love you Momma Rob!

We are truly going to miss her calling my parent house and they talk for hours on the telephone.

“ I was saddened to hear of Ms. Mary's passing. She was such a genuine person, a gentle and loving soul and sweet spirited. She always let her light shine, never meeting a stranger and always embraced love for her fellow man. I will truly miss competing with her playing "Cookie Jam" on Facebook; she was my biggest competitor. My prayers are with all that are connected with her because she was truly a gem. We mourn her earthly loss but Heaven is truly rejoicing the gain of another angel.

“ There are no words to express how I feel right now. Mary (Mae Lizbeth) has always been there for me and my daughter. Family was everything to her and she saw to it that we were a part of that family. I've shared confidential conversation with her and she gave me heartfelt answers. I've cried on her shoulders and she always encouraged me to stay strong. I've eaten a many meals at all three of her houses and was always invited to family gatherings. My last message from her was via Facebook messenger wishing me a happy Mother's Day. Phyllis, Billy, Sheila, Jr. and Cimp, I've sat where you are sitting now and I pray the comfort of God to surround you and keep you during this season of your lives. She will be missed and I will treasure the memories that I have. Love you all and thanks for sharing your mom with me over the years!
