

Mr. Steve C. Peele

February 17, 1970 - February 13, 2019

Steve was born February 17, 1970 in Martin County to Steve Peele, Sr. and Evelyn Ross. He departed this life on February 13, 2019.

Steve graduated from Washington High School in Washington, NC. After high school he earned his CDL and worked as a truck driver for eleven years. He earned his general contracting license and ran his own Stucco business.

Steve was a die-hard Washington Redskins fan and every Sunday during football season you knew where you could find him. Steve loved watching movies of all kinds.

Steve was a member of Whosoever Will Let Them Come Ministries in Washington, NC even though he resided in Greenville, NC. Steve was a good man and a great friend to everyone. His wittiness and joking way will always be remembered. Steve will really be missed.

Steve was preceded in death by his grandfathers, Hallis Peele and George Daniels, his grandmothers, Katie Bell Peele and Lela Daniels.

Steve leaves to cherish his memories his loving wife and best friend, Shanerika Peele of the home; his children, Desmand Washington of Greenville, NC, Yalonda Mukombe of Raleigh, NC, Ronica Washington and Stevie Peele both of Greenville, NC, Perron Johnson of Washington, DC, Ta'nayzia Johnson of Greenville, NC, Julian Peele of GA, Steven Peele of Greenville, NC, Shania Peele of the home; mother, Jean E. Ross (Floyd); father, Steve Peele, Sr. of Williamston, NC; Brenda Forman (George), Veronica Reyes (Raymond) Stephanie Moore, Charity Wallace, Katie Peele, Falicia Stevens; special cousins, Allen, Jeremiah, Curtis, Vanisha; a life time friend Marius Hardy; a very special niece/daughter, Chasity Hardy; a host of aunts, uncles, grandchildren, nieces, nephews and special friends.
