“ I have so many memories but one I remember most is the time I lost my job and he took me to apply with the board of ed as a cook. They just looked at me and said "If he's ok with you we'll start processing." Thomas was that type of dude.

“ Dear Uncle Thomas
I'm deeply saddened that you had to go.. What I will miss the most about you is the warmth of your smile, your cooking and your kindness... The memories I will always cherish of you and the fact that you never forgot about your little niece even when Dad did.. I know you too are walking in heaven now full of life and wrecking havoc on the ladies..love you always and a day!!

Your niece and friend, Shari and the whole Harvey-Taylor Crew
