

Mr. Walter Martin Slayton III

December 20, 1962 - January 24, 2020

Walter Martin Slayton III, 57, of Montgomery County, Maryland, passed away Friday, January 24, 2020.

Walter, also known by many as "Butch" or "Walt" was born December 20th, 1962 in Washington, D.C. to Walter Jr. and Tyra (McCarroll) Slayton. He was a long haul truck driver by trade like his father before him. He enjoyed traveling and the outdoors, especially while riding his Harley and being amongst friends. He was known to be the life of the party and was always there to lend a hand and help friends in need. Later on in life he especially enjoyed spending as much time possible with his grandchildren.

Walter is preceded in death by his father: Walter Martin Slayton Jr.

He is survived by his mother, Tyra Slayton; his brother, Robert and his wife Wendy Slayton; his daughter, Rebecca Marie and her husband Matthew Melchior, and their son Anthony John; his daughter Kaitlyn Leann Slayton and her children Leighvi Arlene, and Legend Lee; and his son, Walter Martin Slayton IV. He is also survived by countless loving friends and extended family.

“ So sad to hear about Butch! He was such a sweetheart! I remember we used to take breaks together at Giant and we were always late because he wouldn’t come out of the men’s room until someone else came out first because he didn’t want to touch the door handle LOL! He will be greatly missed ...condolences to the family. Beth Bandy
