

Mrs. Addie Hopkins

January 12, 1945 - August 14, 2020

Addie Dixon Hopkins was born to the late David Dixon, Sr. and the late Almeta Forbes Dixon on January 12, 1945 in Pitt County, N.C. and was one of twelve children. She departed this life on Friday, August 14, 2020.

Addie attended the black schools within Pitt County, N.C. namely Robinson High School in Winterville, N.C.

Addie relocated to the Big Apple and married the wonderful late Rayfield Hopkins, who was also a Bell Arthur native on October 26, 1966.

Addie continued to worship God while living in New York, on December 7, 1986 she joined Franklin Avenue Baptist Church under the leadership of the late organizer The III Rte. Rev. Idus A. Nunn, Sr. She was very faithful attending church along with other family members. On February 6, 2016 she was Ordained as a Deaconess along with her late husband, Deacon Rayfield Hopkins. Deaconess Hopkins continued to give God thanks and praise for all things that he had done in her life in spite of her health concerns. Her songs of praise were "I Will Trust in the Lord" and "Take the Lord with You Everywhere You Go."

Addie provided childcare from 1982 to 2003 she would pick up the neighborhood children from school help them with homework, provide meals, and take them on outings. With the support of her husband, Addie was able to leave her job and become a homemaker which she loved doing.

Addie is preceded in death by her husband, Rayfield Hopkins; son, Marvin Hopkins; sisters, Almeta Tyson, Alice Fay Dixon, Dorothy Mae Jenkins, Dorothy Jean Harrington (Bay), and Earline Dixon; brothers, David Dixon Jr., Clinton Dixon, James Earl Dixon, and Donald Dixon.

Addie leaves to cherish her memories to her four loving children, Demark Dixon of Bronx NY, Gloria Dixon of Bronx NY, Pamela Hopkins of Bronx NY, and Stacy Hopkins of Bronx NY; eighteen grandchildren, Shaquanna, David, Dequan, Damark, Antwan, Khadeidrah, Tyleek, Shaquanna, Lamonte, Marvin, Natalie, Willie, William, Daisha, Anthony, Portia, Shana, and Meika; thirty-three great-grandchildren; two sisters, Margaret Louise Dixon and Mary Tyson; three God-children, Marcel, Sharese and Shanay; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

*Gg I miss you so much a lot of hurt runs through my veins for you I love you more than anything you were my mother I'm glad you raised me they call me lil grandma. You and papa is the ones I cherish before, now and forever pass death. I love you so much and I wish I can hug you every single day. I know your at peace with papa but everyday I think about you. A big piece of my heart is gone but I'm learning everyday how to cope. It's very hard for me and I know if I would of came to your funeral I would of had the biggest meltdown of my life. U know I breakdown at home. Best mother to talk to I tell you exactly how I feel you showed me how to be the strong lady I am I'm so blessed for that gg we soon meet again I will never stop loving you. My last memories of you wasn't at your best moment but I had to see you the last words you said to me was I love you before they pulled the plug on you but now I have your great great grand and she is the first girl to come into this world since you left I miss you so much she looks everything like you wish you could meet her. I will see y'all soon. When Jesus take me away I want to be buried right next to y'all I'm y'all kid and nobody can stop me from being at peace with my family 🥺🥺🥺
🥺 XOXOXOXOXOXOXO❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️ and happy belated birthday even though I told you happy birthday on your day I wish I could of bought you ice cream and cake but I did sing to you I can go on and on but you know how I feel about you and papa*
