“ My heart weeps at the loss of my beautiful cousin. The oldest daughter of my Aunt Ella. Well Teen, now you and Raymond, Jr. are reunited. Ella (and Muh). Pete, Hat, and Buck are also standing at the Gate, waiting to show you around. When I see you in my mind's eye, I still see you with that beautiful thick, jet black hair, in the prettiest haircut, anyone has ever seen. NARY a hair was ever out of place. As a young girl, I always wondered how you kept such a perfect hair-do. You were so pretty. Funny, I never saw you with your sweater all the way on. You always had it around your shoulders. Such an elegant, and beautiful lady. You spoke softly and laughed quietly. I will always remember you that way. Oh, and don't worry about your baby girl, her husband will continue to take good care of her. Now take your rest. We love you.
