

Mrs Aletha Black Brown

August 14, 1927 - May 15, 2013

On Wednesday, May 15, 2013 God sent His angel of mercy to Interfaith Medical Center.

Aletha Black Brown entered life on August 14, 1927 to the late David and Penny Black of Martin County. Early in life, she joined Mount Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church where she served on the usher board and sang in the choir. In the late 1950's, Aletha met and married Wheeler Brown. Later on in the late 1960's, she moved to Brooklyn, NY where she became employed as an In-home Health Care Nurse.

Aletha retired and enjoyed life. She joined Friendship Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Craig B. Gaddy where she served faithfully until her health began to fail.

She loved coming home and fellowshiping with her family. She was always laughing and mostly just being Aletha. She always enjoyed eating, especially watermelon.

She was preceded in death by fourteen siblings.

Those left to cherish her memories are her loving daughter, Mrs. Jacquelyn Elaine Taylor (Marvin) of Macclesfield, NC; one son, Mr. Ronald Brown; one sister, Mrs. Sadie Black Price of Williamston, NC; two grandchildren; a special nephew, Mr. Herman Black (Florence) of Robersonville, NC ; a very special friend, Ms. Sharon Givens of Brooklyn, NY; a host of other nephews, nieces, relatives and close friends.
