

Mrs. Alverta Boston Corbett

August 3, 1929 - September 13, 2017

Alverta “Bert” Corbett was born on August 3, 1929 to the late James Edward Boston and Stella Clagon Boston in Roper, NC. She entered eternal rest on September 13, 2017 in a peaceful sleep at home. She was the wife of the late Ceasar Corbett, Jr. and the grandmother of the late Corbett Mauney Rider. Also preceding her in death are two brothers; James Otis Boston and Robert Boston.

She was a faithful member of Mt. Calvary Free Will Baptist Church until her health failed in 1995.

Ma Bert, as she was affectionately called, had a short career with the Greenville Police Department and later owned and operated Corbett’s Grocery Store on Pitt Street in Greenville, NC for over forty years.

Our mom leaves to cherish her memories, a daughter, Marilyn Corbett Rider (Frank) of the home, two step sons, Tony Teel (Georgiana) and Jerry Ebron (Jan), both of Bowie, MD, one nephew, Nathaniel Corbett, Jr. of Orlando, FL, nine grandchildren Carolyn Lofton Boykin (Howard), Sheri Rider Jobe (Dawda), Sharyl Rider Barrett (Issac), Frank Rider, III., Jasmine Ebron, Jade Ebron Ranger (Henry), Jammal Teel (Brandi), Kevin Teel (Jessica), Jerell Teel, a host of great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren; six foster daughters from love and devotion; Bernice Coward and Juanita Sims of Greenville, NC, Carolyn Atkinson Burlew of Greensboro, NC, Harriette Brinkley of Durham, NC, Marilyn Hall of Indian

Land, SC, Michelle Gardner of Queens, NY, and many other relatives and friends.
