

Mrs. Annie Marie Clayton

November 25, 1968 - November 23, 2016

Annie Marie James Clayton, born to the late Willie Maxie and Emma James Maxie, graced the world with her presence on November 25, 1968 in Bronx, NY. She grew up in Bronx, NY where she graduated from James Monroe High School. Annie gave her life to Jesus Christ at the age of thirty five and later on became a member of Cedar Hill Missionary Baptist Church where she grew closer to the Lord. She served on the fourth Sunday usher board until her health failed.

Annie attended Martin Community College where she earned a Nursing Assistant Certification. Upon completion of the Nursing Assistant Program she worked for various Home Health agencies as well as Assisted Living Facilities. Her last place of employment was Winston Gardens of Windsor, NC where she worked until her health would no longer allow. Annie was very passionate about the welfare of her patients and often went the extra mile to ensure their happiness. In her spare time she loved to listen to music and play computer games.

While living in New York, she met her husband Thomas Clayton. They were married October 1, 2010.

On Wednesday, November 23, 2016 at Vidant Inpatient Hospice Facility, Annie transitioned from labor to reward. She was preceded in death by her parents, Willie Maxie, Emma James Maxie and special friend, Janice Rodgers.

Living to carry on her memory are her husband, Thomas Clayton of the home; two daughters, Nitielle James of Greenville, NC, Lekita James of Williamston, NC; one grandchild, Adrionah Langley of Greenville, NC; four siblings, Teresa Perkins (Phillip) of Williamston, NC, David Maxie (Paula) of Atlanta, GA, Darryl Maxie (Jeanette) of Durham, NC, Ricky Johnson (Kim) of Baltimore, MD; best friend, Ignaty Moreta of Newark, DE; a host of great aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews other relatives and friends.

“ I am sorry for the loss of Mrs. Annie. The death of a loved one is quite hard to handle. There are precious memories and priceless moments that were shared. Although this may be a difficult time to cope with, a great source of comfort can be found in God's Word, the Bible. With full reliance on God, he can help us to deal with any trials that may come our way. (Philippians 2:4) Your family is in my thoughts and prayers.
