

Ms. Annie P. Hatch

January 3, 1936 - November 13, 2018

Annie Louise Perkins Hatch was born in Bethel, North Carolina on January 3, 1936 to the late Buddy Perkins and the Late Claudia Perkins. She passed away peacefully on November 13, 2018 at Vidant Medical Center.

Annie was a graduate of Bethel Union School. She relocated to Connecticut in 1957. Annie worked at Waterbury Hospital for eight years, Waterbury Register of Deeds for five years and Southbury Training School for three years. After spending several years in Connecticut, Annie came back home and worked for Pitt Memorial Hospital until retirement.

Annie was a faithful and dedicated member of Holy Trinity United Holy Church for over forty years. She was a member of the choir and received a certificate for being one of the oldest members.

Annie loved puzzles, as a matter of fact; she was a genius at putting them together.

Annie was preceded in death by, her parents, Buddy and Claudia Perkins; her brother, Curtis Perkins.

Annie leaves to cherish her memories, two daughters, Dorothy Best of Smithfield, North Carolina, Joan Perkins (James Wilson) of Greenville, North Carolina; four grandsons, Jeremy Best of Durham, North Carolina, Jonathan Best and Kenneth Best both of Smithfield, North Carolina, Cameron Perkins of Greenville, North Carolina; three very special friends, Gaye Morgan, Kim Baker, Mildred Cormack; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins other relatives and friends.
