

Mrs. Annie Holley Thompson

December 25, 1946 - March 31, 2025

For I am convinced that neither death nor life nor angels nor governments nor things now here nor things to come nor powers nor height nor death nor any other creation will be able to separate us from God's love that is in Christ Jesus or lord. Romans 8: 38-39

Annie Holley Thompson, daughter of the late John Anderson Holley and Marie McArthur, was born on December 25, 1946, in Elizabeth City, NC. She attended school in Pitt County before moving to New York for a time. Upon returning home, she married Robert Lee Thompson on December 23, 1989. Annie worked at East Carolina University until her retirement.

On July 7, 1990, she was baptized as a Jehovah's Witness and remained a faithful witness throughout her life.

Annie was preceded in death by her father, John Holley; her mother, Marie McArthur; her daughters, Annette Holley and Angela Wilson; her sisters, Johnetta Harrington, Edna Forest, and Gwendolyn Broy; her brother, Anderson Holley.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory, her sister, Margie Copper of Fayetteville, NC; her brother, Bruce McArthur (Kelly) of Fayetteville, NC; her son-in-law, Gene Michael Wilson of Greenville, NC. She was a devoted grandmother to four grandsons, Michael Wilson, Gene Jamaal Wilson, Trevorrow Wilson, and Angelo Wilson (Felicia Wilson), who was especially close to her from beginning to end. She was also blessed with 13 great-grandchildren and 2 great-great grandchildren.

Annie's love, faith, and dedication to her family and faith will always be remembered by those who knew and loved her.

"In my distress I called on Jehovah, to my God I kept crying for help. From his temple he heard my voice, and my cry to him for help reached his ears."

Psalms 18:6

“ Mrs. Annie and her grandchildren were residents in an apartment community in Greenville where I worked. One of the sweetest people I ever known I have known in my work history, she helped raise her grandchildren. I recently had a moment to think about all of them. May God continue to work in our lives and in the world. May the family be comforted in your time of loss.
