“ My dad had a smile that would cause you to laugh just looking at him! (LOL) But his sense of humor was even more contagious than his grin! When my dad spoke, (his slow southern accent) that alone made you just giggle inside and his comments in his conversations would make you cry with laughter! I often wondered where me and my siblings got our sense of humor from; it was so obvious where it derived from, each time I visited my dad and listened to him tell a joke or clown something or someone! LOL. He was very straight forward about things; had absolutely no filter! He told it like it was! Lol He had this style about him, that I am more than sure I inherited as well; every thing had to be in place and on point! And I'm sure you all can contest to the fact that it took him 100 hundred years to get ready to go anywhere!! Even if it's just down the street to the store!!! I'm sure I got this from him too! LOL. Back in the day, my dad loved his sun shades when he stepped out; even when the sun wasn't out he had to have shades on! Honestly, I think he only wore them cause it made him looked and felt cool. LOL. (I must admit, he really did looked so cool with them on...Lol) I have so many funny and happy memories of my pop; I am so thankful that I was given the opportunity to love on him before God took him home. He loved the Lord truly, as well as his family. My dad, Arthur Cromwell, Jr. touched many lives and put smiles upon many of faces; he will remain in my heart always, as I'm sure he will remain in yours. God bless you daddy; enjoy your new worry-free, pain free, and problem-free Home: HEAVEN. I love you!

Your baby girl,

“ We will miss cousin Art as I will always remember his smile and his perky disposition when we visited my late Grandma Della Purvis. May the peace that comes from the memories of love comfort you now and in the days ahead.
