

Mr. Artis Demoreo Williams

August 17, 1988 - July 22, 2018

On August 17, 1988 Artis Demoreo' Williams was born to Artis Lee Williams and Edythe Jones Williams at Pitt Memorial Hospital in Greenville, NC. Moreo' was ten years old when accepted Christ into his life and was baptized. He was raised up in the Lord and served Him dutifully. He was the youngest of three children. Although he was named Artis, he was affectionately called Arto, Moreo', Duke, or PeeWee by his family and friends. Moreo' attended Chocowinity Primary, Chocowinity Middle, and Southside High School. Moreo' also attended Pitt Community College.

Moreo' was born with sickle cell anemia and diagnosed at the tender age of one month. He battled many hospital visits and health problems but God brought him out of the hospital each time. He fought bravely and leaned on the Lord keeping his faith. His smile lit up the room and he was a loving son, friend, and family member. He was an animal lover. He especially loved his dog Ginger whom he called Mama.

Even as he was struggling to breathe, he led another young man to Christ. He prayed for him always caring for others through his own struggles. On his last day on this side of heaven, his mother had brought him his favorite McDonalds meal and had a wonderful visit full of laughter. A short time later at 10:2 the almighty God, brought his struggle to an end. God whispered "Well done good and faithful soldier. Enter into the Kingdom of Heaven where you will find rest, peace, and joy forever."

Moreo' leaves behind his mother, Edythe; his father, Lee; his brothers, Josefron and Redel; his nephew, Dallas; many, many loving family members and friends that have been by his side through all his struggles. There were so many people in his life that helped him and loved him well.

“ DeeDee,

I am keeping you and your family in my prayers. Just March 13, you and I met again in the hospital when my sister was fighting for her life, and Demoreo was in there too. The things you said to me that night about his courageous fight throughout his life was so comforting, because my sister did the same. I know your heart is sad, but now he doesn't have to suffer anymore pain. Keep the faith and hold on.

Continuous prayers,

From April and Tim Moore
