

Ms. Ashena Jones

December 17, 1976 - April 1, 2024

Ashena Naashon Jones was born December 17, 1976 to Jack and Callie Jones at Pitt County Memorial Hospital (ECU Health Medical Center). Ashena departed from this life on April 1, 2024.

Ashena “SoftSpoken” was not just a daughter, sister, niece, and friend; she was a beacon of love, compassion, and generosity to her family and friends. Her selfless nature touched the lives of all who knew her, and her presence illuminated every room she entered. She had an extraordinary ability to uplift those around her with her infectious laughter and unwavering support with unfathomable love.

Her love knew no bounds, and she gave tirelessly to make the world a better place. Whether it was through her volunteer work at local charities especially nursing homes, her acts of kindness towards strangers, or simply by being a steadfast friend, Ashena exemplified the true meaning of generosity. Her legacy of giving will continue to inspire us all to live with open hearts and extend a helping hand to those in need.

Ashena lovingly known as “Shon” or “SoftSpoken” attended G.R. Whitfield and graduated from D.H. Conley High School in 1997. Ashena attended Pitt Community College to receive a certificate in Early Childhood. Her love and passion wasn’t just in children, but people.

Ashena was a faithful and devoted member of Macedonia Holy Church until death. Ashena joined Macedonia Holy Church in 1987 where she was one of the original members. At a young age Ashena gave her life to Christ and answered the call. Ashena loved preaching and teaching God's holy word. She also had a passion for singing and was a member of God's Promise.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her loving parents, Jack Jones and Callie Jones of the home; four brothers, Michael Jones (Shakista) and Marcus Jones of Raleigh, NC, Rodney Jones and Nathan Brown (Kimetris) of Greenville, NC; two sisters, Keisha Jones and Marsena Jones of Washington, NC; grandfather, Robert Johnson of Williamston, NC; a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, great aunts, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

“ Grace & Peace to this my family, The Jones Family! We remain in prayer during this hour and in hours to come knowing that God is our VICTORY. Remember times of laughter and celebration. It's ok to cry as weeping only endures for a night. Rest now, our sister. Until we meet again.
