“ Condolences 🌸 with love, prayers to Travis,(husband) parents, family and all that knew and love her. She always called me Mama Theresia and it's been a honor to have known her like a Daughter. We talked, laughed and ate at one of her best friends house (our Daughter) that was like a Sister, last month. They were to join us for a special gathering in November. ☐ She told me to let them know about our cookouts and they would attend.

She ALWAYS had a quiet sweet spirit and I never heard her speak ill of no one. Always gentle , with her smile even growing up as a child. SIP beautiful soul until heaven gates opens. GOD has definitely prepared a place for you. And he understands the emotions. We love you always Ashley.

“ I had the great pleasure of working with Ashley for a short time at ECU. She had a beautiful spirit & was very dedicated to the patients in her care. She was always eager to learn new skills to help others. I truly enjoyed our short time together. My deepest sympathy goes out to Ashleys family. May you rest in Heavenly peace, Ashley.

“ When I got the news of your passing I was shocked. I'm still in shock honestly. Ashley not only were you one of my closest friends but the big sister I never had. I'm thankful our paths crossed. You will be missed more than you know. I'm glad we were able to see if other this past summer neither of us knowing it would be the last time. Barnes/Hardy family you are in my thoughts and prayers. My deepest condolences.

“ Meeting Ashley was a coincidence although our developing sisterhood in Christ, was by design. She found me and supported my small business- A connection developed there. But when I lost my husband, she comforted me during my time of grief and that connection was solidified.

Ashley's kind and loving spirit, her smile and encouragement was truly the reflection of God's love for His people. I know she was an angel on earth who lit up any space with her smile and quiet demeanor. I still can't believe I won't see her face or hear her voice or talk about strengthening our Walk in God. But I will keep in my heart just how she touched it with her kindness and compassion. As we say at Koinonia Christian...One more Soldier has made it in.

“ My condolences to Travis, the Barnes and Hardy families.

Ashley is the type of neighbor everyone would love to have. She's kind, loving, thoughtful and gracious. She not only loved her family, but she cared so much for her neighbors, her community. She showed it in so many ways mainly by making everyone who moved into our neighborhood feel welcomed and included.

Ashley you will forever be missed.

“ Ashley, you were one of the first people I had the pleasure to get to know after joining Koinonia Christian Center Church. Such a beautiful person inside and out. Your smile was just contagious. My heart is heavy because your friendship meant the world to me. There will be a huge void here without you. I am so blessed that God allowed us to meet. I will carry all the beautiful memories of you forever in my heart. I love you my friend. I’m praying God will comfort and strengthen your husband Travis, parents and all of your family and friends.

Ashley , I'm going to miss you like crazy . I saw you recently @ ECU in Tarboro . You yelled down the hall way hello Ma Ann . I met you and we hugged each other and promised to keep in touch . We had no idea that would be our last time . God knew but I'm so glad we didn't . We sometimes feel that God makes mistakes but he doesn't . You're with someone who is so perfect 🥰 and we all trust you with him (Jesus)

“ Ashley it is an unreal thought when I think of the last time I saw you happy and excited about being married and your job. You still had dreams to live things you wanted to do. Our plans are not always Gods plan. I thank God for having you in our lives. I watched you grow up in church, you kept your faith. I watched your post as you showed your current fellowship with church groups. Fly high now I have always told you and the group you are all stars, now we can look up and see the brightest star sparkling and know it's a reflection of your life we now know you are communing with the Bright and Morning Star. Your presence will be missed by us all. My prayers to the family, being apart of Hyde County we became one family in the community and church. I Can Only Imagine your face when you see Jesus, “Peace Be With You until we meet again.

“ To Travis & Family: Our love, prayers and heartfelt condolences go out to you during this diffult time of bereavement. From the time we first met Ashley, she was so sweet, loving and kind. Her presence and beautiful spirit most certainly will be missed, but her memory will live forever in our hearts. May God comfort you and give you peace and strength to endure. With Love, Grandma Lettie & Grandpa John.

“ I met Ashley Hardy Barnes a few years ago while volunteering at Koinonia Christian Center Church DAFF, and we instantly connected. We had so much fun together, and we promised to stay in touch and hang out more often. Though our busy schedules kept us from seeing each other as often as we'd hoped, we always made time for quick selfies whenever we saw each other. Ashley was such a kind, beautiful soul, and her presence will truly be missed. Sending prayers to all of Ashley's family and friends. This one really hurts. ☐ Rest in peace, my friend—forever in our hearts. ❤️🕊️

“ Ashley was in many of my classes at Mattamuskeet School. I had the pleasure of watching her mature into a very intelligent and thoughtful young woman. She certainly loved her sweet mother. I pray her mother and family can find comfort in knowing she lived the life of a Christian woman and definitely is in a wonderful place.

“ My prayers and condolences for Ashley's family. This seems so unreal 🤔 I knew Ashley, when she was a baby and growing up. Ashley would come with her grandmother (Mrs Rebecca) to my childhood home dressed in one of her many beautiful dresses 👗 or outfits to visit my grandmother. She was always quiet and well mannered. Blessings to her mom Ms Judy and her husband R.I.P Ms Ashley 💖 Emma, Juanita and Karrie
