

Autumn Marie Harper

May 26, 2010 - November 28, 2018

Autumn Marie Harper, affectionately known as “Autie-Poo”, was born May 26, 2010 to Jamil Harper and Andrea Marie Harper. She departed this life on Wednesday, November 28, 2018 at her home surrounded by her family. Autumn attended school at Eastern Elementary, Greenville, NC. She was an honor student and received the Presidential Award for Excellence in Education during her school years. Autumn was an extraordinary student, reading at a fifth grade level. She met her AR goals, math goals and won the terrific kid award for the past nine weeks. Autumn had aspirations of being the first doctor in the family. Autumn leaves precious memories to her parents, Jamil and Andrea Harper of the home; her big brother, Jamil of the home; paternal grandmother, Janette Harper of Farmville, NC; maternal grandparent, Linda Smith of Greenville, NC and Kent Hart of Winterville, NC; great-grandmother, Ada Smith of Greenville, NC; a host of uncles, aunts, cousins other relatives and friends. Autumn will surely be missed by her classmates and teachers.

“ i miss you autumn. i still can't bring myself to visit u even though it's been almost 8 years. your brother was in my class and he never talked to anyone nor smiled. it just breaks my heart. just when i look at him i see you in him. i miss you so much. i still couldn't make it to your birthday this year even though i tried to. i can't get over the fact your gone. i miss you. you showed me what a real best friend is and i haven't made a new one since because no one could ever replace you. just know i'll love you forever. please tell me your doing okay in heaven atleast. i wish this was a dream.. we could've been in highschool together. graduating together. but god had other plans for you and that's okay. i do now understand why you were never allowed to have sleepovers at my house. i miss your voice, your face, everything abt you. u were so sweet i love you angel.

“ hi autumn. it's now maybe six years since you left us and i'm still in denial. i missed your birthday this year again.. i had you on my mind and realized ur birthday was coming up but somehow i still missed it i'm so sorry. but my life has been pretty good. i found a boyfriend and we've been together for seven months.. we're going into highschool together.. that's what me and you could've done if you were still here and i really wish you were still here with me.. i come back here to write to you often. i know it's no point but your so important to me. i also have two nephews. you would LOVEEE them. the youngest one turns one in 2 days and my oldest turns 3 in december time really flies and they're getting bigger. they're so sweet i really wish you could meet them autumn. i think about you often and looking at those photos HURT me a lot. i just cannot believe your really gone?? i recently realized i had depression and i just didn't want to admit it. i was in the hospital for doing something i shouldn't have done ever. i realized i should keep living for my nephews and also you. i still think that this is a nightmare and that you'd come back. but why did it have to be you. i still remember seeing your face in the casket , you were smiling. i couldn't bare to see it. i couldn't see my bestfriend like that. i wish i could spend my birthday with you next month. i'm planning on going to the beach. also should i print a picture of you to put it in the back of my phone case? or maybe a necklace. your forever in my memory i will NEVER forget about you. your truly my first friend/bff i ever had.. best friends forever right??.. i don't know what to do without you autumn.

“ it’s been almost 5?? years since you’ve left me autumn. it’s me kennedy your bestfriend from 3rd grade remember we always hung out and did so much fun things together and i was really happy being with you. but i’m going to get to the point. i miss you very much and im trying to have the stamina to visit you without breaking down because i cant believe your actually gone. i could not believe my ears when my grandpa told me the news. i started to cry so much. i love you very much and i still do. i remember that photo you took on my phone i think in that ecu shirt. it was really fun hanging out with you and doing things together like that twin telepathy. i still miss you to this day you have been in my memories the past 4 years. i’m so sorry for not coming to visit on your birthday i regret it i tried to visit i really have. i shouldn’t let my emotions get in the way. i just cant stand seeing you gone.. remember mr anderson? he’s a 6th grade teacher at eba now. he’s very nice now he gives me hugs everyday. i don’t know what else to say but i’m going to speak from my heart. i really miss you, your mom, dad, and brother you guys felt like family to me i still cant believe i lost you and especially at such a young age i didnt know what to do then. i’m glad i kept living all for you. i’ve been thinking about visiting this weekend and buying you your favorite things you liked. like the hot cheeto puffs they were actually pretty good. i’m glad i tried those with you. i love you more than myself and my other friends. you were always my first bestfriend and would NEVER let someone else take that title from you. i’m now in 8th grade at eba going to be in early college. i’m doing this all for you autumn :). you’ll be so proud of me. i’ve also been having dreams about you. i can always feel you smiling and looking over me because your protecting me. i hope heaven is really treating you well love. i’m actually tearing up writing this. i love you very much autumn. you are the only reason why i’m still alive and going to get into my dream college and my dream career. all because of you. i love you so much you don’t even know how. i still talk about you to this day and how much i miss you. i get why your mom didn’t let you stay over my house back in 2018. my life changed when i heard those news. again i love you very much and i promise you i promise and i won’t break it that i will visit you no matter what. i don't care i will. i will bring you your favorite flowers. i don't remember what they were but i'm sure you will be grateful for anything you get because your such a sweet girl. your smile is just so beautiful. only reason why i smile. you and your family always treated me so well and like i love you guys very much. i hope they're doing okay! i also want to apologize for falling asleep at your funeral. i just had so much stress on me because you were actually gone.. im so sorry i regret it. i hope you forgive me. i wish i done things differently in my life. it should have atleast been me instead of you. you deserved to live autumn. also i've never had a chance to call you autie poo and i will respect that because you said for family i think. i should start being respectful to people and family that's just not me. i'll come here every often to write to you <3. again for the millionth time I LOVE YOU SO MUCH AUTUMN. i hope your enjoying heaven my little angel. you'd be 13 this year. i still cant believe it. rest easy little angel ☐ 🍷 😞 ❤️

I miss her. It's like I have no one now. We played so much together :(I really hope she comes back so I can play with her again. She will be missed by others. She is where she is right now. She is probably enjoying the after life. But she sure misses everyone she knows. When that morning when she wasn't at school I wondered she always go to school and never misses a day. So that night my grandpa always look on this website to see who passed and he saw her. And he called my sister she was babysitting me and my brothers . So he called and said if I know autumn then I said yes and bursted into TEARS.

“ I am honored to have been able to be one of Autumn's teachers at Horizons at The Oakwood School. She was such a sweet, smart, and beautiful girl. I will remember her hugs, and when she would sit either beside me or sit on my lap and would look at me with that beautiful smile. I would look back at her with a smile and say, "Remember, you are kind, special, important, and smart." I am grateful to have known Autumn and she will always have a special place in my heart. My prayers are with you all. May God comfort you now and always.
