

Mrs. Bertha Barrett Bullock

June 23, 1946 - May 18, 2024

Bertha Bullock was born to the late John Barrett and Josie Washington Barrett on June 23, 1946 in Farmville, NC. She departed life on Saturday, May 18, 2024 at Pruitt Hospice in Farmville, NC. Bertha attended public schools in Farmville and Winterville where she graduated from WH Robinson Union High School. She also graduated from Pitt Community College with a nursing assistant certificate.

After graduating from high school Bertha suddenly lost her Mom and had to raise her siblings while raising her first child Sheila. Three years later she married Haywood Bullock, Jr and later had her second child Sydonna. She sang in the number 2 choir at Anitoch Holiness Church for many years. Then joined Holy Trinity United Holy Church and sang in the choir. She later joined KCC until she could no longer attend church due her illnesses.

Bertha worked for Pitt County Memorial Hospital for several years and prior to that she worked for Greenville Villa for over ten years. She was a self-made master chef and could cook a variety of meals from soul food to elegant cuisines. Bertha was also a bible scholar who know each chapter from Genesis to Revelations. She was the entire family bible scripture citator and a certified prayer warrior.

Bertha was preceded in death by her three brothers, Cleveland, James and John Barrett.

She leaves to cherish her memory her two children, Sheila Barnes and Sydonna Bullock both of Greenville, NC; three loving grandchildren, Joseph Barnes, Morgan Tyson and Solomon Tyson; one great-grandchild; three sisters, Sarah Brown of Newport News, VA Joyce Davis (Gary) and Cloverette Smith both of Greenville, NC, one brother, Albert Barrett of Rochester, NY; a host of loving relatives and friends.
