

Mrs. Beulah Mae Speller

June 9, 1951 - April 11, 2026

Beulah Mae Parker Speller was born on June 9, 1951, in Windsor, North Carolina. She departed this life on April 11, 2026, in Greenville, North Carolina. She is now reunited in Heaven with her beloved life partner, Arthur Lee Speller.

Beulah graduated from Bertie High School in 1969, marking an important milestone as a member of the first integrated graduating class reflecting her dedication and perseverance. In 1970, she married and soon after relocated to Harlem, New York, where she began building her life and family.

She dedicated many years as an agency childcare provider, nurturing and guiding countless children in her community with love and patience. In 1997, she retired and returned home to Windsor, where she continued to care for and support her family with the same devotion that defined her life.

She found joy in simple pleasures, especially tending to her garden. Beulah had a warm and caring spirit that touched everyone she met. Her radiant smile could light up any room, and her laughter was truly unforgettable.

Beulah was a devoted mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend. She leaves to cherish her memory her children, Arthur Lee Speller Jr. of Harlem, New York, Belinda Curtain of High Point, North Carolina, Keisha Speller of Washington, D.C., Shonte Speller of Raleigh, North Carolina, and Sean Speller of Windsor, North Carolina. She was the eldest child of Lucy Parker and a loving sister to Lee Oliver Parker, Ray Charles Parker, George Parker, and Jack Parker. She also leaves behind three grandchildren, Caleb Curtain, Amara Speller, and Isaiah Curtain; along with a host of extended family members and dear friends.

Beulah Mae Speller will be deeply missed, but her love, kindness, and legacy will live on in the hearts of all who knew her.
