

Mr. Billy Gray Tucker

January 7, 1944 - April 28, 2020

Mr. Bill Gray Tucker was born to the late Herbert Tucker and Dorothy Tucker on January 7, 1944, in Greenville, N.C. Bill departed this life and enter eternal life on Tuesday, April 28, 2020.

He received his formal education from C.M. Epps High School, and his favorite subject was English, and his favorite sport was basketball.

Billy married Bertha Acklin, and they remained married for over 45years.

"Bert" was the love of his life and from their union; two children were born (Reginald S. Tucker, Yolanda D. Tucker).

Billy became a faithful and devoted member of the Free Evangelist Church in Washington, DC, where he often assisted his pastor.

Everyday living for Billy was being spiritual, putting his family first, and working to provide for them. He was a retired Federal Government worker. He worked for 30 years with the United States Government Printing Office in Washington, D.C.

Billy enjoyed socializing with family and close friends and fishing with friends. Billy "never met a stranger" and cultivated a large circle of friends. He and his brothers were often called the "Tucker Boys". Billy enjoyed playing cards, making his famous "Mac and Cheese" while letting everybody know and repeat his favorite saying "I Was A Bad Man"! Greenville was always a special place for him, especially the times when all the siblings were together and attending Meadow Brook Annual Reunion Picnic Day.

Billy was preceded in death by his father, Herbert Lee Tucker; his mother,

Billy leaves to cherish and celebrate his life his wife, Bertha Tucker of Temple Hills, MD; one son, Reginald S. Tucker of Temple Hills, MD; one daughter, Yolanda D. Tucker of Oxon Hill, MD; four brothers, Curtis Tucker (Debbie) of Springdale, MD; Harvey Tucker (Vicky) of Greenville, NC; Wayne Tucker of New Haven, Connecticut and Tyrone Tucker (Gwen) of Lawrenceville, Georgia; sister-law, (Mattie Jean Acklin); four grandchildren, Terria Tucker, Reginald Tucker Jr.(raised as their son), Ganei' Tucker, and Malik Green; one great-grandchild, Kristyn Tucker a host of nieces, nephews, a special aunt, Annie of Simpson N.C., other relatives, and friends.

“ Tucker as we called him was a great communicator, smart, and always kept an upbeat spirit. In fact he was one of our groomsmen in our wedding almost 45 years ago. When ever the opportunity of our path would cross to us he remained the same. Laughter and his jokes was always good medicine for us. He will be sorely missed by the Cox family. Our condolences to Bertha, Kids and all of his family. Joe & Sandy
