

Mr. Billy Walls

September 23, 1953 - October 14, 2020

Billy R. Walls was born in McColl, South Carolina. He graduated from McColl High School. He was a devoted husband and father. His life was full of professional baseball, basketball games, and a zest for cars. In high school he played football, basketball, and he played the trombone. His first car and last car were his favorite ... a mustang.

After graduating from McColl High School in McColl, South Carolina he attended Marlboro Technical Institute, Marlboro, South Carolina and earned a degree in Machine Technology. He worked at Marlboro Vocational School where he taught machine shop. He later moved to Greenville, North Carolina and began a career in Human Resources with Yale Materials Handling Company, Greenville, North Carolina. While working long hours at Yale he decided to return to his career as an educator with Pitt County Schools. He attended East Carolina University, Greenville, NC. He was instrumental in the start up of the Pitt County School Transition Center where he worked with troubled youth. Billy retired from Pitt County Schools.

Billy served as an usher with his daughter Billie and his best friend Byron Tyson, but did not want anyone to look at him. Therefore, he stopped ushering. He was an active member of Cornerstone Missionary Baptist Church. He was a dedicated member of the Pitt County NAACP as Vice Chair

Of Pitt County Legal Redress Committee. He was passionate about helping others.

Billy was preceded in death by the love of his life, his mother, Mrs. Julia Margaret Morrison Walls.

“ If Tomorrow Starts Without Me...

*If tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise you find your eyes all filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you
And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.
But when tomorrow starts without me please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand.
He said my place was ready, in heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But as I turned and walked away a tear fell from my eye.
For all my life I'd always thought, I didn't want to die.
I had so much to live for, so much left yet to do.
It seemed almost impossible that I was leaving you.
I thought of all the yesterdays the good ones and the bad.
I thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday, just even for a while,
I'd say goodbye and kiss you and maybe see you smile.
But then I fully realized that this could never be,
For emptiness and memories would take the place of me.
When I thought of worldly things I might miss come tomorrow
I thought of you and when I did my heart was filled with sorrow.
When I walked through heavens gates I felt so much at home.
God looked down and smiled at me from his great golden throne
He said, "This is eternity and all I've promised you"
Today your life on earth has passed but here life starts anew.
I promise no tomorrow, but today will always last
And since each day is the same there's no longing for the past.
You have been so faithful so trusting and so true.
Though there were times you did some things you knew you shouldn't do.
You have been forgiven and now at last you're free.*

*So won't you come and take my hand and share my life with me?
So when tomorrow starts with out me don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.*

“ I remember the wonderful times we had as children. I loved going to Aunt Julia Margarets in the summer and being with all of my cousins. I remember the watermelon garden, the big white house beside my cousin's house (which was where their paternal grandmother lived) and I remember riding in Billy's sharp car (I attached a pic of him standing by it). I really remember how Billy liked his eggs (sunny side up)...the yoke completely raw. He would dip his toast in the yoke. This wasn't a bad thing, but as a kid, I liked my eggs scrambled hard with cheese. I couldn't understand why he didn't like his eggs cooked. :-) It's sad how life must change but change is not only inevitable...it is necessary. I love you, Billy! I don't see my family much now...since we are older, live in different parts of the country and growing our own families. But I still want everyone to be okay. I just want everyone to be okay.

We find ourselves at a lost for words to express our condolences to you and your family. We are praying with and for you. He was always encouraging but honest and straight forward so we knew what had to be done. We shall miss his commitment to education in Pitt County. Thank you for sharing him with our community.
