

Ms. Brenda Morgan Crandall

September 15, 1965 - October 4, 2021

Brenda Morgan Crandall was born to Hilda Roundtree on September 15, 1965 in Greenville, NC. She departed this life on October 4, 2021.

Brenda was educated in the Pitt County Schools System. She continued her education at Martin Community College and attained an Associate Degree in Medical Assistant. Brenda also completed her Bachelor's in Business Administration from Strayer University.

Brenda was a hardworking mother. She was the friendliest, down to earth, and humble person that never met a stranger. Most of the time, she was a comedian that made everyone laugh. Brenda loved and adored her two daughters; all five of her grandchildren dearly. She held a few jobs throughout her entire life, but her last job was at Walmart in Williamston, NC where she worked for thirteen years until her health decline.

Brenda was preceded in death by her brother, David Earl Morgan; her grandmother, Mary Jane Morgan; her aunt, Louvenia Louise Morgan.

Brenda leaves to cherish her memories to her mother, Hilda Roundtree; her daughters, Kwameisha Stancil (David), Shakira Morgan; her brother, Louis Morgan; her sister, Brenda Council; her five grandchildren, Tah'Jhae, Carter, Asiaa, Isaiah, Mila; her special friends, Paige Barkely and Delores Harris; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends.

“ I miss you, every single day. Literally. Go from talking to you every single day to not hearing from you at all. I still can't believe it sometimes. Twenty nine years with you, a great mother, the best mother you could be...even while being sick. The pain will never go away, always gotta remind myself to keep pushing and be grateful even when it's hard. I love you forever ma.
