“ I learned of Brenda's passing about 2 days ago and my heart broke. I'd been praying for Brenda's healing when I learned of her condition and as I cried when learning of her transition a voice said stop being selfish.....she's now truly healing 💕
She and my mom were friends from their Vidant days. Brenda was like a daughter to my mom and she talked on and on about what a sweet and caring person she was. I don't know how to share this with mom💔

“ The sweetest woman of God I know. Brenda was very meek and humble. I have never seen her out of character. I am so glad that our paths crossed. She will be greatly missed. Now Brenda, you can sing your song, shout and dance all you want to💙.

I knew you my whole life and always was loved and have never been treated any way but loved as your nephew. Words can not describe the hurt we all feel from your transition, but we know that God has healed you just like we all prayed. Aunt Brenda, I love you, and Thank you for being a wonderful Auntie.
