“ *I knew Brenda and her late husband Amos over 30 years. We worked together for The USPS. Brenda was always sweet and kind. I never saw her angry or in a bad mood. We both were 23 years old trying to find our way. I will always remember Brenda and her love for Amos. I just talked to her on Facebook 3 weeks ago. I sent her a song I composed. She gave praises and the last thing I told her is that I Loved her. God's Eternal Peace to Brenda and God's Arms to Comfort you. Sleep Well My Friend and I will see you Tomorrow

“ Brenda Sewell-Jones was my friend since 1956, we were in the 1st grade together, along with Gloria Robison-Felder. I knew this day would come but it was still too soon. I hadn't seen Bren since 1965 til our 50th Class reunion, it was as if we had been together all this time, I met Amos and it never ended until June 6, 2023. I will never forget her, she will be my friend always. Can't wait til we meet again. Friendship and love is made by God. She is my friend in another place. Gone from here but not my heart. MY, MY, MY!
