“ In 2018 we experienced a hurricane together. No one had electric for over a week. I was 20 weeks pregnant and Carlette and David were my neighbors. Everyday the two of them would go to the only convenience store that was open and stock up on coffee, drinks, food, cigarettes...whatever anyone in our building would need. Gas was limited also, so anyone who needed a phone charge would have to get it through them to charge up while they were out as well. We all slightly regretted not evacuating but we created a a deep bond.
And a million stories about how much she ended up loving my baby;)
But the hurricane story is a great example of the kind of person she was.

Sister Jennifer, thank you for allowing me to read about and feel the Spirit of Love that your neighbors the late Sister Carlette shared during her earthly journey.

To God Be The Glory for her kindness!

“ I remember my cousin as the nicest, sweetest gentle person. She could cook loved when I would sleep over Delise st. When She and my uncle mark where having a baby I ask if she would name him Roderick after me and let me be his godfather. Carlette always had a smile on her face she believed in the one true savior Jesus Christ. I know Roderick is getting some good cooking and his mom is smiling. God bless Cousin
