“ I was deeply saddened when I heard of Cassandra's passing, but I know God makes no mistakes. Cassandra was a beautiful person and I don't care when and where I saw her, she would give me that gorgeous smile. I remember her in some of my classes at E.J. Hayes where she was quiet but always ready for a good laugh. We will always remember her. Family, be encouraged and remember the good times you had with her.

*Respectfully,
Ernestine Wiggins Peele*

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Ms. Cassandra Brown. With deep respect on this sad occasion I would like to share some bible scriptures that have comforted me when I have lost a loved one to death. At Revelation 21: 3-5 God promises that He will eliminate death forever. And at John 5:28,29 He also promises that He will resurrect those that have fallen asleep in death. I whole heartedly hope these scriptures bring you some comfort during this difficult time.

Sincerely,
Ellie

“ My sister in Christ, our sister, my friend; you will be missed. I thank God for allowing you to be apart of my family for 40 years. You brought your love, joy, smile and open heart to help others. I will miss our praying and singing to the glory of God on our Saturday mornings talks. We will miss our holidays together and our vacation trips. We know your departure at this time is temporarily until we get together with the heavenly choir to sing praises to God in His Holy Temple! Rest in His presence my sister! We love you Cassandra! We pray that the Lord will strength the Brown family, my brother Ronnie and all that loved her during this time of loss. God will carry us through the days of heavy hearts and lonely tears. There is nothing He can't heal us from. Stay strong in the Lord. We love you and our thoughts and prayers are forever with you. Love Brigette Stokes/ Helen S. Hoggard Family
