

Mrs. Cassandra Perkins Lawal

November 21, 1975 - November 3, 2019

Cassandra Ann Lawal was born on November 21, 1975 at Pitt County Memorial Hospital in Greenville, NC to Shirley P. Smith and on November 3, 2019, she went on to be with the Lord.

Cassandra, affectionately known by family as “Sauya”, embraced her big sister role, loved her family and friends deeply, cherished her role as a mother and was passionate about nursing.

Early in life Cassandra found an interest in playing the clarinet, where she was a member of her middle and high school bands. She also participated in the band’s color guard during her later years in high school. In 1994, she graduated from J.H. Rose High School.

Cassandra grew up in church, singing in the choir. She eventually joined Koinonia where she used her love for dancing to serve on the dance team. She also had an interest in videography and photography.

Cassandra knew she wanted to become a nurse early in life. In 1998, she obtained her Nursing Assistance license and after years of hard-work and determination she became a LPN in 2009. In 2012, she fulfilled her life dream of becoming a Registered Nurse. As a nurse she enjoyed working with children at RHA Howell, and was excited about the challenge of advancing her skills at LifeCare.

Cassandra was known for her feistiness, boldness, strong personality and deep care and love for others. She loved the Lord, dancing, traveling the globe, and working, As a hobby she enjoyed creating decorative items and collecting porcelain dolls.

But most of all she enjoyed spending time with friends and family, as she was truly the most outgoing person of the family.

Cassandra was preceded in death by her daughter, Gabriella, who she loved, cherished, and missed immensely.

Left to honor and celebrate Cassandra's life, her husband (David Lawal), mother and father, Clinton and Shirley Smith, brother, Clinton Smith, Jr (Tasha), sister, Charmaine Smith, brother, Clinton Smith, Jr (Tasha), sister, Charmaine Smith, brother, Gentry Barnhill (Natasha), grandmother Alice Locke; and a multitude of family and friends.

“ My friend/sister, smh ... I wasn't prepared for this. Its not a day that goes by without you on my mind. So many questions I have but no one would be able to answer. I see your smile and bright eyes. I can hear your voice and I'm shaken up all over again. Cassandra you will be missed by me and I will forever cherish every moment we spent together. You are back with your baby and I pray God grants us here left behind with comfort.

To the family, you'll have my deepest sympathies and I will continue to stay in contact.
