“ Pastor Catherine St. Clair was a woman of God. For as long as I have known her she showed nothing but love. I used to watch her all the time after services and how the little children made their way to her and she always had a hug for them. Its the little things sometimes that means the most. To her family I'm so sorry for your lost. Your family is in my prayers.

“ I will always remember as that 16 year old girl laying awake in Beaufort County Hospital the year of 1978 when she came into my room to ask me if I knew Jesus. I proudly said, yes I do and she asked me if she could pray with me and I again I proudly said yes. I don't know if she was also a patient or a visitor but what I do know and remember is she was the only one that made sure I was in the right place on my spiritual journey and for that I am and will always be grateful. Enjoy the presence of the Lord!

“ Where do I begin? Prophet Catherine St.Clair was a caring, compassionate, god-fearing vessel, prayer warrior, and a heart of gold precious jewel. Prophet St.Clair installed the word of God in my life along with her husband, Pastor Alonzo St.Clair. Love, Faith, and Victory Ministry was a place I called home. Any time that I needed prayer or a listening ear I could call Prophet St.Clair. I am so grateful to have been under the leadership of Love, Faith, and Victory Ministry. Prophet St. Clair loved people and the people loved her. The memories that we shared will last forever. When I heard about the passing of Prophet, I was truly hurt. She was like a grandmother to me. She was filled with the word and she could make it plain. Everything that I know about the Bible came from LFVM. Sleep on Catherine St.Clair and I love you. Praying for the family.
