

Ms. Chakeisha Andrews

October 18, 1973 - April 11, 2025

Chakeisha “Keisha” Andrews was born on October 18, 1973 in Martin County the daughter of the late Annie Latham and William Jack Andrews. On Friday, April 11, 2025 she transitioned in her home early that morning.

Keisha attended Roanoke High School and got her GED and CNA certificate from Martin Community College. If anybody know Keisha the first thing they will say, is she was a hard-working woman. CNA was always the best job for her.

Keisha loved her lifetime movies, her cold Pepsi, her big TVs and please do not forget her Betty Wright songs. Keisha was the type of person who would never give up and would make a way out of anything. She had a smile that would brighten up the room and didn't mind walking around with no shoes. She was always herself.

Keisha was preceded in death by Wallace Andrews and Janice Andrews Rodgers.

Keisha leaves to cherish her memories, her daughter, Quneisha Roberson of Rocky Mt, NC, Dashownia Roberson of Hassell, NC; her sons, Andrew Roberson, Jr of Hassell, NC, Tracy Goddard of Hassell, NC; God-son, Nickelas Collins of Robersonville, NC; her grandchildren, Tyler, Di'shya, Andria, JaQuez, Jaylen, Aaliyah, Lonnie Londynn, Nova, Amaya, Nolan, and Jakari; brother, William "BooBoo" Andrews of Wake Forest, NC; sisters, Shelby Jean Latham of Greenville, NC, Annie Marie Williams (Richard) of Williamson, NC and Jacqueline Baker of Raleigh, NC; special friend, Joanne Council; special niece, Aja Bell Andrews; with a host of nieces, nephews, uncles, aunts, cousins, and friends.
