“ *My husband Jerome & I were deeply saddend to hear Deacon Charlie passed. Heartfelt condolences & prayers are extended for his entire family. He & Jerome were very good friends who talked often before & after his move to NC. I was blessed to serve as his musician & choir directress for many years. He sang so beautifully with the Male Chorus where he lead songs including, Lord Help Me to Hold Out. Now, our friend is among the "Heavenly Angelic Choir." It was indeed a joy to know him as we spent time together in church & in his DE home. He is deeply missed but, will always be remembered.
May he RIP.*
