

Ms. Cimmie Costin Hyman

April 9, 1973 - April 30, 2015

Cimmie Denise Hyman 42, Of Somerset, NJ passed away on April 30, 2015 in the city of Greenville, NC.

Cimmie Denise Hyman was born at St. Peters Medical Center New Brunswick, NJ to Joyce Dollie Hyman and Carlton Golden on April 9, 1973.

She attended North Brunswick High School where she graduated in 1991.

Employed as a medical office assistant, Cimmie became acquainted with the medical reception field, but that wasn't adventurous enough for her. She was later employed by Delco/Delphi Battery Co. for twelve years. Once the company closed down, she decided to attend Raritan Valley Community College in pursuit of a Nursing Career. Although her schooling was constantly interrupted by her illness, Cimmie persevered through it all. She learned a lot during the time she was able to attend the nursing program, but realized she needed to put that on pause to handle her illness and that was the best decision for her to make at that time.

Fortunately, she did get a chance to pursue some of her dreams, one being motorcycle riding. Cimmie was a bike rider to her heart and she enjoyed riding with her "crew". Once she got her feet wet, you might as well leave her alone. She loved to hit the highway and was well known to and Loved to "Drop The Hammer"! as the bikers would say. Cimmie relocated to Greenville, NC, where she continued her battle with cancer.

In 2005 Cimmie united in Holy Matrimony with Andre Costin.

Cimmie is preceded in death by her maternal grandmother, Lenora Short; maternal grandfather Raymond Hyman, paternal grandparents, William and Bessie Golden.

Cimmie is survived by her mother, Joyce Dollie Hyman of North Carolina; father, Carlton Golden of Alabama; one daughter, Zhanesia Princess Amina Howard; one grandson, Kace Lamar of North Carolina; three brothers, Kenneth Hyman Jr.(Brenda) of North Carolina, Gary Hyman of New Jersey, Gregory Hyman (Kim) of Florida; five sisters, Lisa Hyman of New Jersey, Carla Golden-Garrett, Chanetta Smith, Gwendolyn Darby all of Maryland, Donita Jackson of News Brunswick, NJ; father figure, Kenneth Hyman Sr. of North Carolina, a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
