

Mrs. Clavon Wallace Overstreet

October 28, 1930 - February 24, 2017

Clavon Wallace Overstreet was born on October 28, 1930 to the late Henry and the late Lossie Wallace of Everetts, N.C. On Feb. 24, 2017, she departed this life into the arms of Jesus.

Chavon one of fifteen children, eight brothers and six sisters attended the Everetts Elementary School in Everetts, NC and later graduated from Parmele High School. At an early age, she gave her life to Christ while attending Lily of the Valley Baptist Church. In 1950 she married the late Rufus Overstreet to this union two children were born; son, Llewellyn Overstreet: a daughter Cynthia Clavon Jones, who preceded her in death.

She was a member of Mt. Everest Baptist Church in Brooklyn, N.Y. where she served as Mother, Deaconess and Trustee. She remained a faithful member until her health declined. Her busy active life included: Managing Elks (five houses), Eastern Star (Past Matron), the Brooklyn family mentor program and the Senior Citizen Center.

After living in New York for sixty-six years, Clavon moved back to North Carolina to enjoy country living and spending time with her only brother, Andrew "Gus" Wallace and family and a cousin, Herbert Whitfield.

Clavon was a family leader, who was admired and respected by every family member. She had a great sense of humor which was shared by all who knew her. She will live in our hearts and minds forever.

Clavon leaves to cherish her memories her loving and caring son and his wife, Llewellyn and Shelia Overstreet; three grandchildren, Tyeisha Clavon Watson (Cornell, II), Janneane Rollins (Samuel), Tristan Foye; six great-grandchildren, Tatyana Clavon, Ayanna Clavon and Arianna Clavon Watson, Je'Vaughn, Shawn and Amaya Rollins; one brother, Andrew "Gus" Wallace (Simone); God-daughter, Wanda Lawrence; a very devoted niece, Christine Manning and a supportive sister-in-law, Simone Wallace and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

I gave no one a last farewell
I said good-bye to none
For the heavenly gates did open wide
And a loving voice said "Come In".
