“ To sister Jackie and family, our deepest Condolence and prayers goes out to you and your entire family. We are so sorry for your loss. Brother Clayton will be missed, I don't care where I ran into him which most of the time country mart, he always held a conversation. I remember the fellowship with New Hope church how he was a very caring and humble person who loved his family. May God comfort, strengthen, touch, heal and soothe everyone of your hearts as you prepare to lay your husband, father family member to rest, the days to come and there after. ❤️🙏🙏

“ My dear brother in law I'm really at a lost for words. My heart was already  because of not so long ago loses and this just adds to the pain. More tears to add to the ones I'm already shedding. Seeing you at the family reunion a few days earlier none of us knew that would be our last time celebrating the holidays together, however I'm glad we had a good time and it was a great family reunion. I'm going to miss you. We'll make sure your family is fine.
