

Mrs. Clover Brown

August 10, 1958 - September 7, 2021

Clover Dean Brown was born August 10, 1958 in Martin County, North Carolina to the late Alton Clay and Ester Roberts. She passed away on Tuesday, September 7, 2021.

Clover received a formal education at the Martin County public schools system. She worked at Perdue Farms Robersonville, North Carolina as a quality control inspector for about 30 years she then married Gabel Brown on May of 1998. Clover enjoyed cooking and trying new recipes she also loved to go to yard sales and going to thrift shops, and when the weather was pleasant you could find Clover sitting on her porch enjoying a good book or doing her crossword puzzles.

Clover was a member of Cedar Hill Baptist Church, Williamston North Carolina under the leadership of Pastor Roy Gray, Sr. She sang in the adult choir, attended services very faithfully and enjoyed her time at Cedar Hill for as long as her health permitted.

Clover was preceded in death by her father, Alton Clay Roberts; her mother, Ester Mae Roberts; her brother, Jimmy Roberts, Alton "Dinky" Roberts; her sister, Annie "Eva" Brown.

Clover leaves to cherish her memories, her husband, Gabel Brown, her daughter, Lakoiya Pittman (Nicky), her brother, Johnny Roberts, Alvaretta Roberts (sister-in-law), her brother, Donald Roberts, her sister, Lola Brown; three grandchildren, Marco Dequez Pittman, Nikita Dealice Pittman, and Nicholas Quatez Pittman; a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and other extended family and friends.

“ I am filled with several emotions at the loss of my cousin Dean. She was a special person. She took me under her wing when I first moved to North Carolina. She was a true fighter. Her laugh was wonderful. She was a joyful person I prayed for her and believed that she would be healed. Now I pray for her family left behind. That God will help them in the day ahead. Love you Sherry Brown

“ To the family, it's with great sorry to hear the passing of Cloverdine. She was a beautiful spirit. I recall the days she would come and bring sunshine to my mom (Winnie I). Always coming with a smile and laughter. What a joy it was to know her, fellowship with her, laugh with her, and to just be a part of her family. Clover.. You will be missed. Thank you for the memories. Give your aunt, my mom a hug 🤗. Soar with the angels love one.
