

Mr. Curtis Gainor

April 26, 1935 - December 4, 2019

Curtis Algenon Gainor was born April 26, 1935 in Martin County, North Carolina. He was the second child born to the union of the late Lucy Wynn and Richard Gaynor. He departed this life on December 4, 2019 in Mechanicsville, Virginia.

Curtis attended Martin County Public Schools in North Carolina and later moved to New York City where he worked in a variety of occupations. He spent the majority of his career as a tractor trailer driver for the New York Times. His commendable work garnered numerous awards for safe driving over the course of his career.

In 1959, he met and married Evelyn Delores Frye; they made their permanent home in Union, New Jersey. Upon his retirement from New York Times, Curtis and Evelyn relocated to Mechanicsville, Va. and established themselves as faithful members of First Union Baptist Church, Mechanicsville, Va.

Curtis was an avid gardener. He loved antique cars and playing competitive games on the computer, especially international checkers. He was rarely seen without his puzzle books. Together, Curtis and Evelyn traveled extensively throughout the Continent of the United States, Hawaii, and many ports throughout the Caribbean. He was especially fond of his trips to the island of Aruba. He enjoyed family gatherings, his closest friends, and good food. A man of few words, he was a private person with a tender heart for his fellow man and woman. He would give you the shirt off of his back. Family and friends often enjoyed his witty sense of humor.

Curtis was preceded in death by his brother, Rudolph Gaynor; his eldest son, Curtis Anthony Walker. He leaves to mourn his devoted and loving wife, Evelyn; his children, Suzette Modica, Rev. Dr. Kathy A. Gainor, and R. Marcus Gainor; daughter-in-law, Bridgette Walker; four grandchildren, Keon, San'iya, Larkeriya and Jackie; three great grandchildren, Shyriona, RaQuerius and Amina; his sister, Shirley Forney; sisters-in-law, Marian Gaynor and Anna Feacher; brother-in-law, Howard W. Smith; aunt, Elizabeth Woodard; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.
