

Cynthia Ann Andrews

July 6, 1965 - September 8, 2012

Cynthia "Cemp" Ann Andrews was born on July 6, 1965 to the late Robert Andrews, Jr. and Gladys Mae Clark. She entered into eternal rest on Sunday, September 2, 2012 at the East Carolina Heart Institute in Pitt County.

Cemp, as she was affectionately called, was educated in the Pitt County School System. She faithfully attended Chapel Hill Baptist Church in Williamston, North Carolina until her health began to fail.

Cemp was preceded in death by her father, Robert Andrews, Jr., her son, Quentin Andrews, and her very first niece, Jalisa Nicole Edwards.

Cemp truly loved her sons, teaching them the way of life and to respect and love one another no matter what. Her mother and grandchildren were truly the apples of her eye. "Cemp" enjoyed sitting on her porch and working in her yard. She was known for keeping a house so clean, your children could eat off the floor. She loved to cook and spend time with family, talking about old times, and hanging out with her "Boo", Anthony.

Cemp leaves to cherish her fond memories to her boyfriend of nine years, Anthony Burroughs of the home; three sons, Toby (Telitia), Travis (Keria), and Termaine Andrews (Sabrina) all of Williamston, NC; mother, Gladys Mae Clark of Williamston, NC; two sisters, Regina Corey (Kelly) of Williamston, NC and Sylvia Moring (Glenn) of Robersonville, NC; a very special father figure of eighteen years, Samuel Gilliam of Windsor, NC; seven grandchildren, Tacoby, Tjay, Tanyla, Tanzel, Daquan, and Maya all of Williamston, NC; a very devoted niece, Sierra "Sis" Andrews; a very, close cousin, Fatima Goss (Micheal) of Raleigh, NC; a cousin Danny Rodgers (Chrystal) of Williamston, NC; ten aunts, six uncles and a host of other relatives and friends.

There is not a day go by that I dont think about you.Regina and I talk about somemuch. There is a void in my heart because I can no longer see your face nor hear your voice. When I ride by your old house I have to look away beacuse I know you are not on the porch nor cleaning the yard. The boys as you would call the call me or either stop by. All I can say is you are truly miss!!
