

Ms. Darnella Andrews Hall

December 11, 1928 - March 3, 2017

Darnella Hall, AKA "Sharkie" and "Grandiva", was born December 11, 1928 to the late Richard and the late Lorraine Andrews in Brundidge, Alabama; and was raised in Harlem, New York. Darnella went home to be with the Lord on Friday, March 3, 2017 at Vidant Medical Center.

Darnella lived most of her life in Manhattan and Brooklyn, New York until relocating to Greenville, North Carolina in 1991. While in Manhattan she met and married the late Clyde Hall Sr. They were blessed with four biological children, and raised many more children.

Darnella held various positions with the state of New York, was a foster parent, and a wonderful homemaker. Most knew her as an avid card player; hence, the name "Sharkie." She loved playing spades and pinochle, but was a master of all card games. She enjoyed reading and listening to all types of literature. She made the best waffles on this side of heaven, and was well-known for her waffles and fried chicken. In her later years you would see her playing games on her tablet. What you may not know is she even crocheted blankets out of plastic grocery bags for the homeless. Her road dog was her granddaughter, Nyrobi Thomas (which is where the name "Grandiva" was coined).

Darnella was preceded in death by her oldest son, Clyde Hall, Jr.; three sisters, Geri, Betty, and Burnette; two great-grandchildren.

Darnella leaves to cherish her memory three children, Sharon Hall, Richard Hall (Pamela), Kendall Hall, special daughter, Mary Redmond; four grandchildren, Kimbaly Brown, Richard Hall, Jr., Nyrobi Thomas, Yara Williams; eight great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends

“ *Ms. Hall,
Thanks for all the love you shared over the years. I remember Senior prayer hour in the Chapel and all your stories of New York. I will miss the touch of your ever so soft as we greeted each other on Sundays. But most of all I will miss you sitting on that corner of the third or fourth row (depending on reservation of seats for special events). We will think of you always with much love and honor.*
