Tina, I know this is all hard right now and many questions 'why' but God is your every present help any time and every time. Lean on him and he will direct your path. It will get better as the days go by. Yes, grieve but don't overcome by anger, grief or loss. The devil is still defeated-he still does not win! Find peace, comfort, help, and strength in God, family and friends who care about you and your kids. You will need help. God is always here , family is here, and so am I. Love you lady, Monique Green
