“ As an eternal optimist being fueled by his beliefs in God’s plan for us all, Dave Folsom touched many lives and received abundant blessings. I had the great pleasure of spending several years with the Folsom family and often reflect on those fond and warm memories. Still today, I can hear Dave’s giggle from some crazy story that I would recount from my youth in NC. He was always a good audience and orator with tales of his own . As with any journey, Dave witnessed many of life’s mountains and rivers that perhaps would have broken the will of the faithless. However, therein lies the difference with Dave. His will to endeavor was born from the promise that we never walk alone in this life and out of the darkness of any situation, the one true light of God is evermore it’s brightest. I send my condolences to all who loved him and shared his life. Dave Folsom may be gone from this earth but his legacy endures in all who believe and trust in that faith. Love and Kindest regards - George Lindsey

“ Our great and loving Lord intertwined my small family with Dave and Alana's sweet and generous family over many years in Billings, Montana. Dave was my first employer when I returned to Billings, not knowing what our future looked like...he was a great brother in Christ, a mentor and friend. His jokes, smiles and energy helped during that time. He later was my son's first employer, after also serving as his Sunday School teacher, and made a good and lasting impact on his work life and beliefs. My thoughts and prayers are with Alana and his girls throughout this difficult time...and am praising our Lord for bringing his faithful servant home to glory and for eternity.
