

Ms. Deborah Pullen Bandy

July 13, 1950 - April 12, 2022

My life is being given as an offering to God, and the time has come for me to leave this life. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now, a crown is being held for me—a crown for being right with God. The Lord, the judge who judges rightly, will give the crown to me on that day. Timothy 4:6-8 ~New Century Version (NCV)

Deborah Jean Pullen Bandy was born July 13, 1950, in Waterbury, Connecticut to Walter Kenyon, Jr. and Mary Allen of Rhode Island. She departed this life on Tuesday, April 12, 2022 surrounded by her loved ones, now she is at peace in the arms of the Father.

Deborah was educated and attended Maloney High School in Meriden, Connecticut where she went on to graduate. After graduating, she went on to gain a higher education and moved to Manhattan, New York and worked until she relocated to Greenville, NC. While living in Greenville, she worked to provide for her two children. Deborah was a beautiful strong and amazing mother; she was smart and kind in every way. She never met a stranger and never complained. Deborah was a hard worker, encourager, a listener, she loved any color of blue, and loved horses. Deborah never forgot birthdays or holidays but in doing so she always told her children and grandchildren “Baby it’s the thought that counts” And that lesson will carry on.

Deborah was preceded in death by her father, Walter Keyon, Jr; mother, Mary

Allen.

Deborah leaves to cherish her daughter, Charlene Frazier; her son, Melvin Evans; stepson, Anthony Parker; stepdaughter, Tiffany Freeman; grandsons, Tamar, Zaire, Mekhi, Kris'tian, Anthony and Ardine; granddaughters, Alexa, Aliya, Shanyla, Amiyah, Te'Yauna, Ke'mauriuah, Aalaicyah, Emoni, Shakyra; great-grandchildren, Ja'lahni, and JaNoah; a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
