“ I still have a heaviness on my heart and just cannot believe that I lost Debra. When I did not hear from Debra, I knew something was wrong. We were both doing our Doctoral degree in ministry at Liberty University. We met once on face-time, but we worked together on the phone. When the work became difficult for me, I failed a couple of times, and was ready to quit. In fact, I did stop, Debra was always there for me, praying and comforting me. She was never too busy for me. She showed me so much love, that I believed if she could write my paper, she would. However, that was not possible because we were writing on different topics. Nevertheless, she continued to call and prayed with me in the hopes that I would continue. Now, I want everyone to understand that Debra and I have never official met, but because she was truly a woman of God, she loved me from the bottom of heart and wanted to see me succeed. She told me that she loved me and that I had a special place in her heart. She told me that she would wait on me so that we could graduate together. I tried so hard to wrap my head around this lost. I decided to pick-up where I left off. I asked the Holy Spirit to give me the knowledge and strength to to finish for Debra, that's what she would want me to do. To Debra's family, Debra was very kind and special thank you for sharing her. I will always remember her kindness towards me. I miss her so much.

“ Heartfelt prayer goes to the family of Ms. Debra Smith, her charm and pleasing personality always made an everlasting impression to everyone she met. Having to opportunity to work with her at work and in church was a pleasure. She will always be remembered as a Woman of God in all that she accomplished. May your sorrows be comforted in days to come as your loved one rest peacefully in the arms of her Heavenly Father.

“ Mrs. Debra,

Thank you for ALL that you did for My Mother and My sisters over the years. You were and will forever be special to us. You left footprints in our hearts. You imparted something special in our lives and it is my prayer that we did the same in return. Sleep well dear, we will see you in the morning.

WELL LIVED, WELL LOVED, WELL DONE and it is WELL.....
