“ Sending condolences to the Lee Family on behalf of the Greenfield Terrace Community. Mrs. Lee was a part of Greenfield Terrace when I came in 1971.

Beautiful and caring and was always willing to participate in our neighborhood events. She was treasurer of our neighborhood association for a number of years. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ Mrs. Lee was my 9th grade teacher at W.H. Robinson Union. I remember her as a quiet, calm, caring teacher who wanted the best for her students. She was both my homeroom teacher and taught me typing. Teachers like Mrs. Lee were rare. Teaching was not just a profession to her but also it became her life's determination that we, her students, succeed, thrive, and prosper in the world. Mrs. Lee, the battle has been fought and the victory has been won, take your rest. Family, you are in my prayers.

Joyce? This is Vanesa Moore (Ms. Susie's granddaughter--beside St. Rest church.) Is this the same Miss Sherrod that used to live uptown? She was the sweetest teacher and a sweet person.

No. This lady lived in Greenville.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are extended to the Lee family in the passing of Mrs. Doris Lee. Mrs. Lee was our homeroom teacher our senior year in high school. Not only was she a good teacher but she knew how to motivate her students. To the family our prayers are that you will be comforted by God's presence, power, and promises during your time of bereavement. Unfortunately a previous commitment will not allow us to be present for her celebration of life, but please know that we will be praying for you.

“ *TO the Sherrod Lee Families:
Words cannot express the sadness that I am experiencing now from the loss of my dear cousin.
We shared a close bond from the moment, we learned that we were cousins.
My grandmother, Luella was Doris's dad, sister.
We kept in touch over the years after I graduated from G.R.
Whitfield High School and moved to D.C. and up until the present.
Carol, I will always hold you dear in my heart as a special cousin and I will forever remember my visits in D,C. and coming to Virginia to visit all of you.
May God continue to bless our families to tunnel through the difficult days ahead.
