“ To Wanda, Ervin, and the entire family, my sincere condolences to you all. Even though we lost contact my cousin Liz kept me updated. Bernard was a very humble person that loved life and cooking. My fondest memory was way back in the day when he was trying to teach me how to drive a "stick" gear and we had an accident leaving the Flamingo Lounge. He took the blame since I didn't have license. Thank God we didn't get hurt. He will be missed but thankfully the memories I will cherish.
