“ I offer my sincere condolences to the Blow Family for the loss of a husband, father, brother, in-law, uncle, cousin and friend. Elijah was such a kind person who always carried himself with dignity. I regret that we did not get to see each other more in recent years. May God bless The Blow Family and give you peace.

“ Mr. Blow it was such a honor to get to know you these pass years. From seeing you in the hallway, being on the bus with you, from hearing you say "Lord I thank you", hearing you laugh, to talking with you about life and learning so much about you. You definitely were a hard worker and wore so many hats. I pray that you are now getting some much needed rest because you didn't know how to sit still lol. Until we meet again Mr. Blow. Sending prayers to his family and everyone he knew because he left his mark in our lives.

“ To my family, this one hit a little different. He was always smiling and the most humblest, sweetest uncle, you could imagine. I will definitely miss seeing his smile at Family reunion. Atlanta this year will be forever cherished. When I arrived at the hotel, he was the very first face I saw, and per usual, the sweetest hugs, I will definitely miss him. He called me over a month ago, just to chat and on wished me and my family Happy Thanksgiving!! These memories will be cherished. Rip uncle. Love one enough while you have a chance!!!

“ *Mr. Blow,
I only had the honor of knowing you a short time. But in that time, you shined your light on me. From our spiritual talks to you acting like you didn't hear me call you on the walkie...lol, I enjoyed every minute. You are a staple of Bethel School, in my opinion. I am shocked but I know that God makes no mistakes. You were a God fearing man and lived the life that showed just that. To the family, thank you for being open to Mr. Blow being a part of the Bethel Family. He has definitely left an impact.*

“ One Of Our Dedicated Blow Family Reunion Cousin, you will TRULY BE MISSED by All Of the Family. You have touched Our hearts in so many ways. It was just something about you when you entered the room, that respect, obedience, all fell into place. When you spoke, & prayed all of that good old wisdom was there. A Praying Deacon you was. Rest In Peace Cousin.

“ To Elijah's Family:

Although your hearts are heavy now in the loss of Elijah, may you find peace in knowing that God needed this angel at this time to complete an assignment.

Elijah has always been a person that loved the Lord. He was my grand- children's bus driver when they moved to NC in 2022. His kindness helped make their transition more tolerable. My grandson Josiah always came home talking fondly about "Mr. Blow".

When feeling sad, try to think of the happy times you all shared with Elijah during his lifetime. May God Bless all of you.
