

Ms. Elizabeth Ann Christian-Toppin

September 27, 1947 - June 10, 2017

Elizabeth Ann Christian-Toppin was born on September 27, 1947 to the late Earl Christian and Florence Reed Christian. She was born and raised in Astoria, Queens, NY. She departed this life on Saturday, June 10, 2017.

“Lizzie” as she was affectionately called by her family, attended and graduated from Clara Barton High School. Lizzie received several certifications in ministry from The Bible Institute. She had two children, Anthony and Sharisse, with Thomas Marrow. Lizzie turned her life over to God in the late 80’s when she moved to Arizona with her then husband, James Toppin who preceded her in death. Elizabeth was a caring, generous, loving and devoted servant of God. Her passion and love was cooking and crafting with her sister Doreen.

Elizabeth is preceded in death by her parents, Earl and Florence Christian; sister, Jeanette Christian; brother, James Christian; niece, Angel Strothers; grandson, Ajene Marrow.

Elizabeth leaves to cherish her memories, her life partner, Rodney Johnston; son, Anthony Marrow; daughter, Sharisse Marrow; five grandchildren, Casshea Mazique, Demia Marrow, Antonique Marrow, Cameron Phillips, Aikile’ White, Jennifer Robinson; seven great-grandchildren; three sisters, Doreen Atkinson, Rosa Rispeto, Antoinette Lovette; two brothers, Earl Christian, Jr., Herbert Christian; two special nieces, Sonya Atkinson Bartley, Tyra Atkinson; of course her “Feather” as she called her, Eirena

Blanchard; her best friend and God-mother of her children, Joyce Chase; a special and dear friend, Colleen Burney; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends who love her dearly.
