

Ms. Elizabeth Spears

May 19, 1950 - November 4, 2024

Elizabeth Spears better known as “Pulu” to family and “Liz” to friends. Elizabeth was born on May 19, 1950 to the late Lillian Spears (Parker). Elizabeth peacefully slipped away into eternal rest on November 4, 2024 while at ECU Health. She was born and raised in Brooklyn, NY.

Elizabeth was a loving mother to the late Lillian Spears. She moved to Edenton, North Carolina in 1995. She was a jack of all trades, a saleswoman, a construction worker, party planner and she helped build the Bertie Bridge. She could build a house from the ground up. Elizabeth worked for Britthaven for twenty plus years spreading her love and laughter. Age never slowed her down a hard worker, a dedicated worker that’s who she was. She loved her family dearly, bringing people together brought her so much joy. Elizabeth was the dancer in the family. She loved to dance, when she did her two-step, it made you want to join in with her. Elizabeth would give you anything you needed. She would fuss about it, but in the end, she would give it to you.

Elizabeth will truly be missed for the love, laughter and joy she brings. We love you, Pulu.

Elizabeth was preceded in death by daughter, Lillian Spears; her mother, Lillian Spears; sister, Diane Currie; brother, Ralph Spears.

Elizabeth leaves son-in-law, Norman Goodman; four grandchildren, Jonathan Spears, Jr, Maurice Spears, Darnel Spears, Shaniqua Spears; sixteen great-grandchildren; one niece, Irene Currie; one nephew, John Currie; several great nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
