

Mrs. Ella Reddick

August 17, 1929 - February 21, 2017

“I will lift up my eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.” Psalms 121:1-2

Ella Rose Wilder Reddick was born on August 17, 1929 and departed this life on Tuesday, February 21, 2017.

Ella Rose graduated from E.J. Hayes High School where she was a member of the girls' basketball team. She worked at W.I. Skinner, Martin General Hospital, Martin County Social Services and Smiling Faces Childcare Center.

Ella Rose committed her life to Christ at an early age and became a “FAITHFUL” member of Cornerstone Missionary Baptist Church until her death. She served as president of the Deaconness Board, Church Historian, President of the Moonlight Circle Ministry Choir, member of the WINGS ministry and member of CBC dining room committee. She loved her church passionately and if she felt she was right she would stand for it even if she had to stand alone. Ella strength was admired by many.

Ella Rose was known for her cooking skills and she loved canning vegetables out of her son's garden. She enjoyed family dinners, crocheting, and making ceramics. She was true giver and would give you “the shirt off her back.” She was true role model for the women and young girls of her church and the community and will be sorely missed by many.

Ella Rose was preceded in death by her parents, Johnny and Roxie Wilder; her husband, John Ester Reddick; three sisters, Willie Mae Jackson, Nellie Ashley and Minnie Wilder; two nieces, Johnnie Mildred Jackson and Thomasina Ashley.

Ella Rose leaves to cherish her memories, her loving and devoted son and daughter-in-law, Errol Darnell and Ontra Reddick of Williamston, NC; her loving and devoted daughter, Esther Marie Reddick Wilson of the home; two grandsons, Errol Darnell Reddick, Jr. (L'Antoinella) of Fredericksburg, VA, Quincey Terrell Wilson of Manhattan, NY; one great-granddaughter, Natlie Isabella Reddick of Fredricksburg, VA; two nieces, Barbara Jackson of Brooklyn, NY, Amanda Stallings of Greenville, NC; three nephews, Kenneth Ashley (Ivey), Michael Ashley (Denise) both of Boston, MS, Rudy Jackson of California; a host of great nieces, great nephews, cousins and other relatives.
