“ Our deepest sympathy to the family of Mother Ellen Turner. My mother, Mary Jane Barnett, was always talking about her and Ellen and their times together and on the phone. They were good company for each other. They loved being at church gatherings together. God provided the friendship that they needed at the time. I appreciate all the time they shared. A true friend is hard to find. May God grant you comfort and peace as you go through this difficult time and in the days ahead. Trust him to be everything you need. He will take care of you.
