“ *Lisa,
My heart goes out to you and the children. Eric was a great guy, we shared so many laughs and enjoyed having you as our neighbors and our great friends. My condolences during these times to you and the family. You are in our prayers sweetie. I will forever cherish the great memories we shared together.
With Lots of Love and Prayers to you and yours*

“ I didn't even know him like that at first but if I ever met a good NCO and person he was one. He helped me get up and out of hard times, he didn't give me money or anything he gave me knowledge and pointed me to where I needed to be.... The good always go young. You will be missed but remembered forever.

“ Lots of great memories with Sgt Webb. Playing spades at ntc and in Afghanistan. I'll miss Ya brother. Go ahead and enlist in God's army.

Greg Bem - March 13, 2015 at 06:37 PM

“ He was my squad leader for a while in Afghanistan, good man he will be missed. Always gave him crap about being a diehard steelers fan.

“ I was lucky enough to share a deployment with SGT Webb. He kept morale high through his positive outlook and humorous nature. The world lost a good soul. RIP man.

“ To the Webb family, my prayers are with you. Eric lived next door to me on Melbourne Avenue. He used to run around the yard, play in the streets and just had fun. Of course, those were the good ole days. I am just finding out about Eric's passing. He is asleep for now, his resurrection is coming. Lovingly, Eula Hedgebeth

“ Eric was like a Lil brother to me and my siblings. He was a joy to be around. I am saddened every day that I never got the chance to reconnect with him after so many years. He ate with us, laughed with us, cried with us, and he was a part of us.....ERIC with my streaming tears dropping into my lap, I miss you already more than ever. RIP...I LOVE YOU SO MUCH!!!!
