

Ms. Ernestine Harris

February 20, 1945 - January 11, 2024

Ernestine Harris was born in Edgecombe County, NC on February 20, 1945. In 1968, Ernestine moved to Englewood, NJ where she settled for almost 50 years. Ernestine was the First Lady mail carrier in Englewood, NJ in the 70's. She drove the van for Seniors at the Bergen County of Freeholders in the 80's and she worked for the Black and White Cab service in the 90's. She achieved her master's degree at the University of Bingo where she learned how to dab her specials and Yell "Bingo!" She also achieved a bachelor's degree in the "Art of Card Playing," where she learned to keep her eyes open for almost two days. She finally retired on January 11, 2024. Surviving to cherish her memories of life is her son, Moses Harris of Greenville, NC; her daughter, Helaine Parsons of Carneys Point, NJ (along with her beloved son-in-law, Kevin); her sisters, Rose Glover and Susie Hill both of Greenville, NC (along with her beloved brother-in-law, Junior); grandchildren and great-grandchildren all from Vanceboro, NC and Greenville, NC; a host of nieces, nephews from North Carolina, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, West Virginia, Maryland, Oklahoma, Delaware, Georgia and as far as Germany.
